

Guided Reading Activity

The United States East of the Mississippi River

Lesson 3 Life in the Region

Essential Question: What makes a culture unique?

Major Metropolitan Areas

Directions: As you read, complete the chart with information about major metropolitan areas in the eastern United States.

City	Location	History	Industry
New York City
Chicago
Atlanta
New Orleans

Guided Reading Activity cont.

The United States East of the Mississippi River

The U.S. Government

Directions: Use your textbook to answer the following questions about government in the United States.

1. How is the United States a democracy?

2. How does the U.S. Constitution make sure that government power is shared?

3. What are the three branches of the U.S. government?

4. What is one way government actions can affect land?

5. What is one way government actions can affect people?

Guided Reading Activity cont.

The United States East of the Mississippi River

Everyday Life

Directions: A country's economy changes with the times. Put the flow chart below in the correct order by putting a number 1-4 next to each box in order to show how the U.S. economy has changed over time.

